

Circular.

St. James's. 16th June 1788.

Sir,

It is with the highest Satisfaction That I seize the earliest Opportunity of Transmitting to you the News received yesterday, the Particulars of which you will find in the inclosed Gazette.

I most heartily congratulate you upon an Event so glorious to His Majesty's Arms, and which, taking in all its probable Consequences, may be considered as the most important that has happened since the Commencement of the American Rebellion.

I am with great Truth & Regard,

Sir,

Your most Obedient humble Servant
Stillborough

To William Hamilton, Esq.

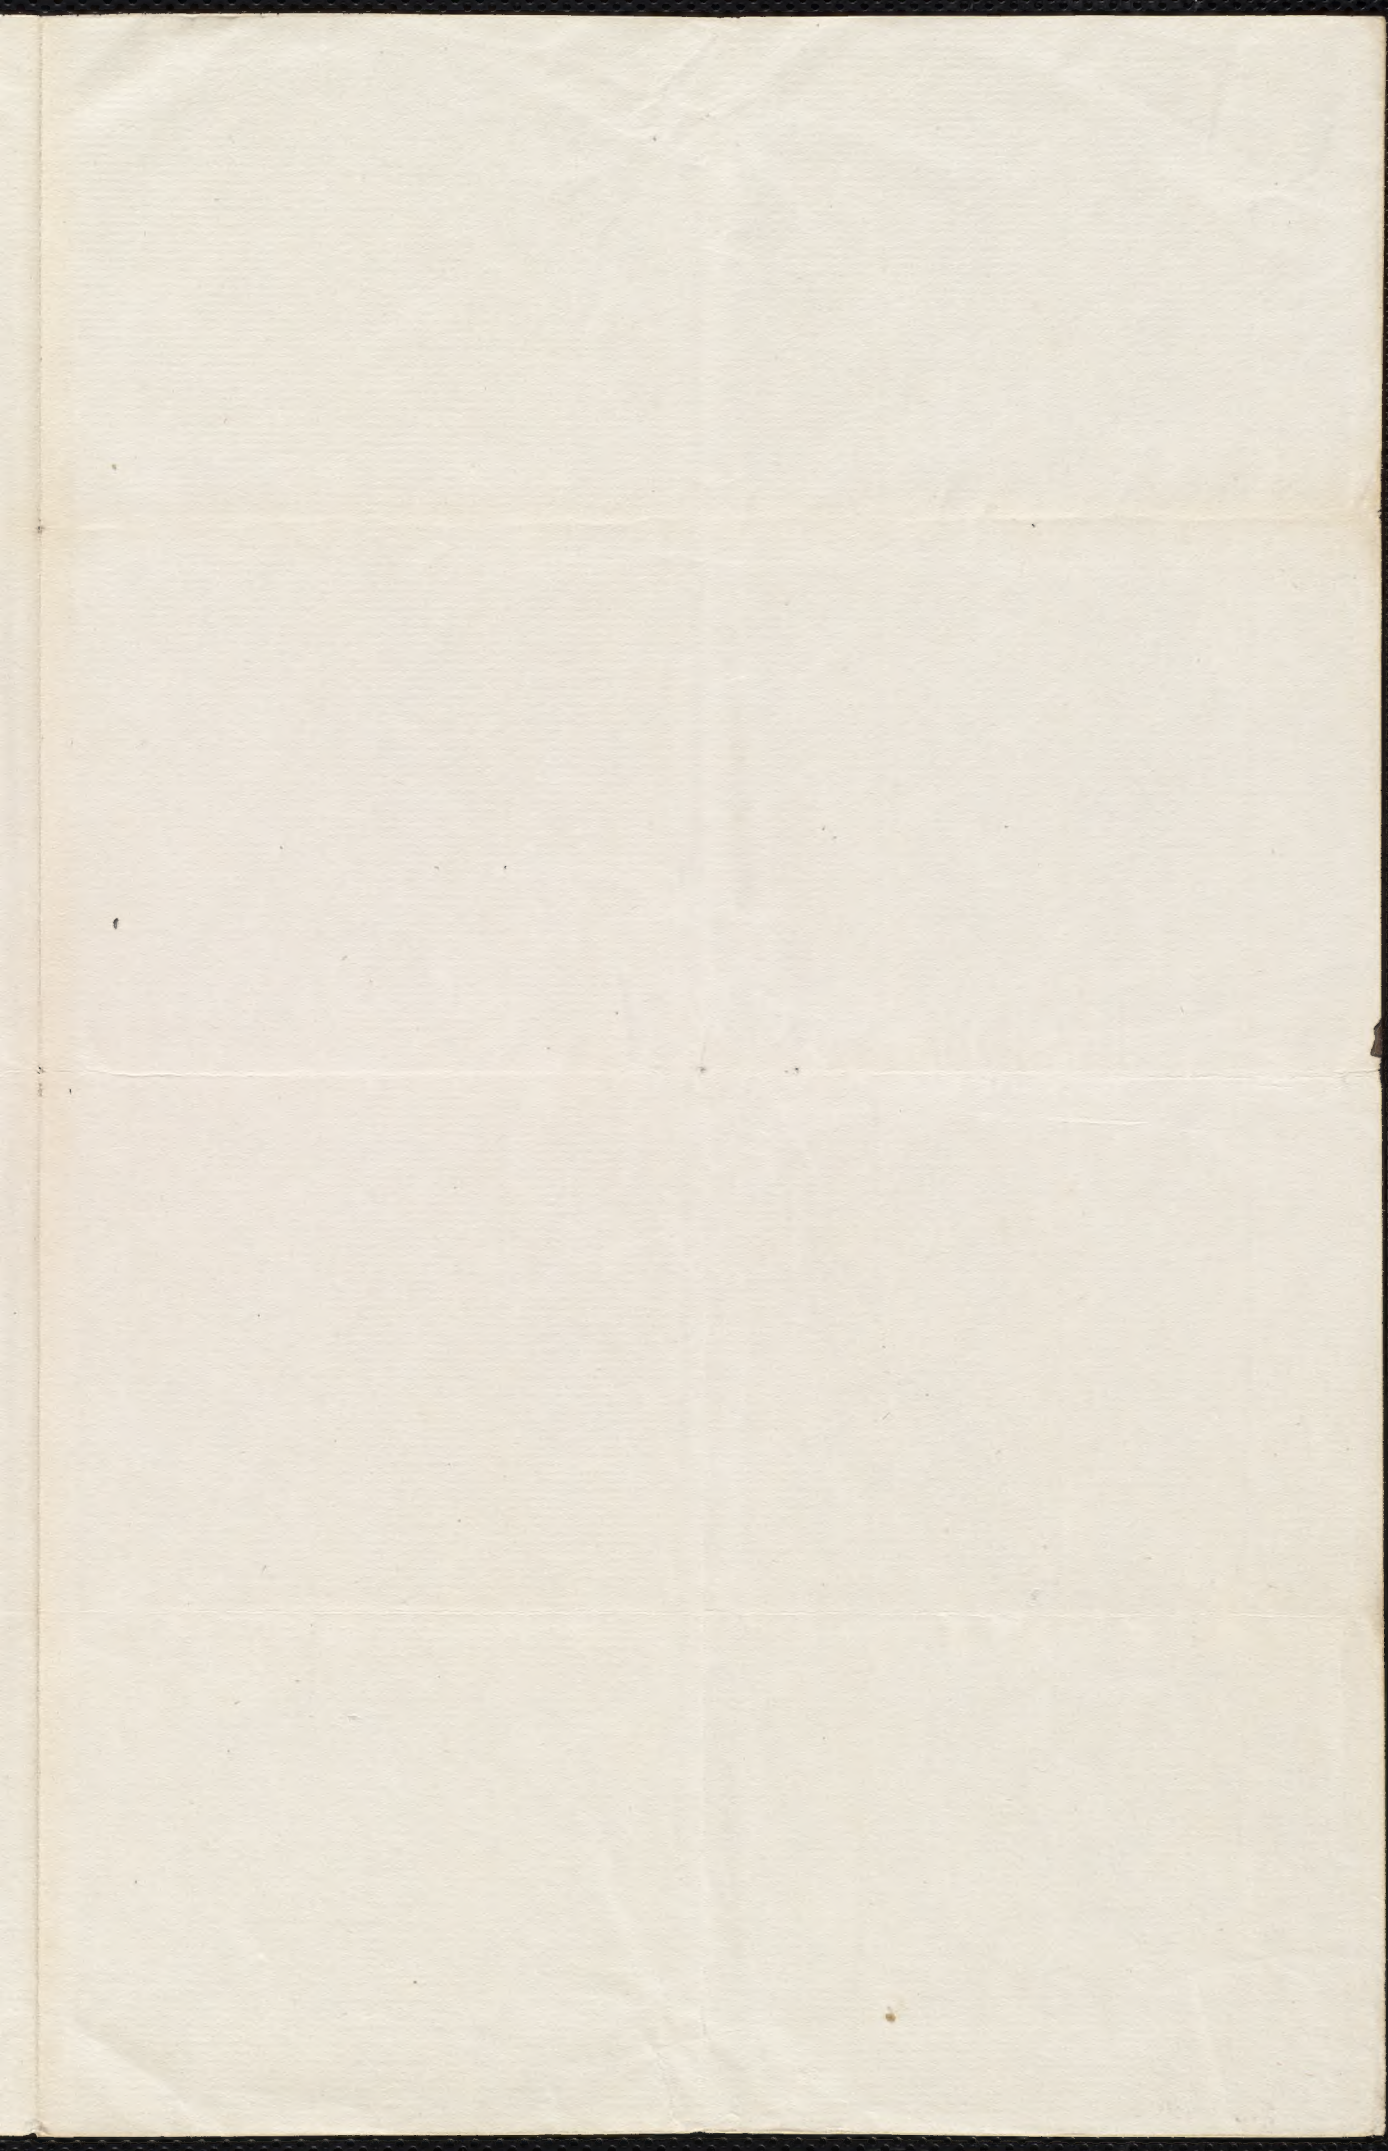

My dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the subject of the same.

I am sorry to hear that you are not well, and hope you will soon be able to resume your usual avocations.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

Wm. L. G. Jones,

Notary Public for the
